

Anna Malmsten
Business Development Coordinator
anna.malmsten@sacc-georgia.org

Anna Malmsten was born in Kristianstad, Sweden where she also went to university and graduated with a BSc in Business and Economics with specialization in international business and marketing. After she graduated she moved to Uppsala, where she is currently enrolled at the university's Master programme in Business and Management and is further specializing in marketing.

She has previous international experience as she during fall 2016 moved to Hong Kong to do an exchange semester as a part of her bachelor. During her time abroad Anna studied courses within marketing and management. This experience gave her new cultural insights and made her aspire an international future career.

On her spare time, Anna likes to be active and spends often time at the gym or outdoors running or hiking.

Anna moved to Atlanta in August 2018 and joined the Swedish-American Chamber of Commerce-Georgia as a Business Development Coordinator.